

Bradán Lane
FOUNDATION

Bradán Lane Foundation
PO Box 123
Painter, VA 23420

The Bradán Lane Foundation is established to contribute to public charities which support underprivileged youth through technical education, academic learning, occupational skills training, and apprenticeships.

Special consideration is given to programs with transdisciplinary approaches and addressing the needs of youth, who are disadvantaged economically, geographically, culturally, environmentally, or through gender conformity expectations. The foundation is in support of programs which help young people become productive, healthy adults.

Our giving strategy focuses on three categories:

1. education across science, mathematics, engineering, and creative problem solving with a strong emphasis on developing skills and experience across multiple disciplines
2. applying trans-disciplinary skills to real problems to enable career opportunities
3. leadership development which values trans-disciplinary experience to enable career opportunities

Funding uses: Individuals and team focused education, skills development, and project centric learning

The Bradán Lane Foundation provides grants to public charities to conduct activities which align with the foundation's described strategy. The Bradán Lane Foundation does not conduct these activities directly.

The Bradán Lane Foundation provides grants to public charities to conduct activities within their facilities or geographic area. The Bradán Lane Foundation does not provide facilities or infrastructure for the public charities' work.

Grant amount: Up to US $5,000

Applications are accepted year-round. There are two grant periods:

May: applications cutoff date is 1-April of the same year and grants awarded at the end of May

November: applications cutoff date is 1-October of the same year and grants awarded at the end of November

Incomplete applications will not be considered. The foundation will attempt to notify applicants of errors or omissions in applications, however there is no guarantee the notification will allow for resubmitting within the same grant period.

Applications which fall within the 'ineligibility' list will not be considered.

Prior to grant distribution, each grant will be required to complete and sign the grant agreement. Additionally, each grant recipient will be required to submit records of how the funds have been used and the impact on the grant proposal goals along with their own assessment of success or failure to meet the goals.

Public charities awarded a grant are required to submit assessments according to their assessment plan. A final evaluation of the performance of the granted program is required within 120 days of the program completion.

The Bradán Lane Foundation's records retention policy includes all grant applications - both funded and not funded. The records for funded applications will further include financial disbursements, assessments, and the final report provided by the public charity.
